≡ WORK EXPERIENCE

CFO

2019-Current

Finality Inc. - Nevada & Utah

As CEO, my primary focus lies in cultivating a business strategy centered around the needs and preferences of our users. Serving as the foremost champion for user experience (UX) within our organization, I collaborate closely with stakeholders to deeply comprehend and prioritize user requirements. This invaluable insight guides our product and service departments, empowering them to deliver solutions that resonate with our audience.

I am dedicated to ensuring that every interaction with Finality, spanning from marketing endeavors to customer service engagements, embodies a seamless and delightful experience for our users. Beyond my core duties, I diligently stay abreast of industry standards and emerging trends in UX design, continuously refining our approach to meet evolving user expectations.

In my capacity as CEO, I am committed to fostering a culture of empathy and user-centric design throughout the organization. It is my responsibility to ensure that all facets of our operations are aligned with this overarching objective, thereby reinforcing our commitment to delivering exceptional user experiences.

COO/CFO

2010-2023

Next Generation Electrical - Nevada

As COO/CFO, I spearheaded the development and execution of impactful business strategies aimed at driving growth and enhancing profitability. Collaborating closely with company ownership, I meticulously identified user needs and pain points, leveraging this insight to prioritize and optimize the user experience.

Additionally, I fostered strong collaboration across cross-functional teams, including owners, owners' representatives, project managers, project assistants, and accounting professionals. By facilitating seamless communication and alignment among these diverse stakeholders, I ensured the successful implementation of our strategic initiatives and the achievement of our organizational goals.

Accounting Manager

4 the Truck & Rogue Racing - Nevada

I was responsible for overseeing the financial operations of the company. I managed the accounting team and ensured that all financial processes were completed accurately and in a timely manner. My responsibilities included preparing financial statements, overseeing accounts payable and accounts receivable, and managing the general ledger.

Business Manager

2013-2014

Peterson Hydraulics - Nevada

As a key contributor, my role encompassed the development and execution of impactful business strategies. Collaborating closely with ownership, I spearheaded initiatives to discern user needs and pain points, employing this valuable insight to elevate the user experience as a top priority.

Additionally, I fostered seamless collaboration across cross-functional teams, liaising with owners, owners' representatives, project managers, project assistants, and accounting professionals. This collaborative approach ensured alignment and synergy among teams, facilitating the successful implementation of strategic objectives.
